

Secondhand Smoke Endangers Children!

Children exposed to secondhand are at risk for lung cancer. They are also sick more often with bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, and middle ear infections.

—The U.S. Surgeon General Report, June 2006